

D4 – Wednesday, July 28, 2010 – THE MAUI NEWS

COMMUNITY

Realtors Association of Maui gives college scholarships

WAILUKU – The Realtors Association of Maui presented thousands of dollars in college scholarships at a general membership meeting this month.

Since 2008, the association has provided awards of at least $1,000 each to graduating high school seniors and to recipients who reapply for the scholarship to continue their college careers. Listed by their respective high schools, scholarship winners are as follows:

- St. Anthony High School: Michael T. Chau, University of San Diego, second award.

- Seabury Hall, all first-time winners: Inanna Carter, Harvard University; Hiroki Ichinose, New York University Tisch School of the Arts; Sierra Jacob, Western Washington University; Mark Rice Walker Jr., University of Utah.

- Molokai High School: Colton Manley, Azusa Pacific University, second award.

- Maui High School: first-time awardees Whitney T.Y. Acoba, University of Hawaii at Manoa; Summer Bradbury, Chapman University; Johnelyn Cadang, University of North Florida; Kelsey Kapisi, Brigham Young University; and repeat winners Jessica Caraang, Hawaii Pacific University; Chaslee Ikawa, UH-Manoa; Kirsten Scarlett Neek, University of Portland; Natasha-Amber Sensano, St. Martin's University; Michelle Soga, Pacific University, Oregon.

- Lahainaluna High School: Jacqueline Michelle Owens, Washington State University, second award; and first-time winners Blake Ball, University of Texas at Austin; Wasseem Bel, University of Colorado at Boulder; Jing Hua, University of California at Davis; Fredeliz Misay, University of Portland; Evan Conner Pascual, UH-Manoa; Jenifer Santos, Azusa Pacific University.

- King Kekaulike High School: Mikaela Lum, UH-Manoa, second award; and first-time winners Alana Fernandez, Seattle University; Caroline Foti, UH-Maui College; Kelsey Madigan, Chapman University; Charles Marley Rutkowski, University of Portland.

- Kamehameha Schools Maui: Cayla R.M. Morimoto, University of Texas at Austin; Preston K. Tavares, University of San Diego; Brianna T. Vargas-Hafoka, UH-Manoa.

- Hana High School: Joshua O. Weigang, Southern Oregon University, third award; Lucas Weigang, Oregon State University, second award; and first-time winners Joseph Kahaleuahi, Oregon State University; Tyrea Smith, University of Mobile.

- Baldwin High School: Chentell Stirtz, Wheaton College, second award; Nitasha Stirtz, Point Loma Nazarene University, fourth award; and first-time awardees Tyler Blair, UH-Manoa; JodiAnn K. Tomooka, Southern Oregon University.

Since the inception of the Realtors Association of Maui Presidential Scholarship Fund in 1989, nearly $350,000 has been presented to scholars graduating from high school.